Return Policy

Pawed Pals Animal Rescue's (PPAR's) return policy is to prevent animals from being abandoned, surrendered to another organization, or euthanized; and to ensure that any animal adopted out by PPAR will be brought back into PPAR's care if an adopter finds the animal to be unsuitable within 30 days of adoption, or if the adopter is no longer able or willing to care for the animal for any reason at any time in its life.

- The adopter must contact PPAR as soon as possible after adoption if any question, concern or problem arises with the animal; or at any time in its life thereafter if the adopter needs or wants to relinquish the animal for any reason.
- Every effort will be made to resolve the adopter's concerns. Should no resolution be found, PPAR will accept the animal back into care. A week's notice is preferred to arrange foster care for the returned animal.
- If the animal is returned within 30 days from the date the Adoption Contract was signed, 50% of the adoption fee will be refunded by cheque within one week of return.
- If the animal is returned within 30 days from the date the Adoption Contract was signed, and the adopter wishes to select a different animal, the adoption coordinator will assess whether or not another available animal may be a suitable fit based on information originally obtained during the application process plus any information subsequently obtained during the time the returned animal was under the adopter's care. If adoption of another animal is approved, a new Adoption Contract must be signed. The original adoption fee will be put towards the new adoption and any difference collected or refunded.
- There will be no refund if the animal is returned after 30 days from the date the Adoption Contract was signed. A Surrender Agreement must be completed.
